ORDINANCE 25-047
AMENDING SECTION 20-63 “PROCUREMENT PROCESS” AND SECTION 20-67 “FORMAL BID PROCEDURES” OF CHAPTER 20 “FINANCE” OF THE BOLINGBROOK VILLAGE CODE REGARDING REQUIREMENTS FOR PURCHASE LIMITS:

Motion Doris, second Patel to pass an ordinance amending section 20-63 “Procurement Process” and Section 20-67 “Formal Bid Procedures” of Chapter 20 “Finance” of the Bolingbrook Village Code regarding requirements for purchase limits.

This Ordinance amends the Village Code’s supervisory requirements for purchasing. Purchases up to $5,000.00 will now only require Department Head approval. Purchases between $5,000 and $25,000 will require Department Head and Administrator approval. Purchases between $25,000 and $35,000 will require Department Head, Administrator and Mayoral approval. Purchases over $35,000 will also require the approval of the Board of Trustees. This Ordinance increases the amount required for Board of Trustees approval and bidding from $20,000 to $35,000. This amendment was reviewed and approved by the Finance Committee.

Deputy Mayor Lawler commented that it is a common practice for limits of authorization to be updated to facilitate the budget process.

Administrator Rickelman commented that the limits of authorization from a number of nearby and similar communities in Illinois were reviewed and the updated amounts are consistent and competitive with the Village's neighbors.

Village Attorney Odelson mentioned that the State law has changed to allow for the increased limits of authorization.
